Dear friends, participants of EuroGA on tour to Roskilde and Copenhagen.

I hope that you have had a good flight, and have seen some of the beautiful Danish countryside from above. Welcome to Roskilde.

I would have invited you to meet us in our clubhouse, but unfortunately the clubhouse is being used for a private party, so in this situation we have a table on Saturday in the restaurant-area (the restaurant is closed at weekends), where we can help you with some practical items of information.

Transportation to and from Copenhagen.

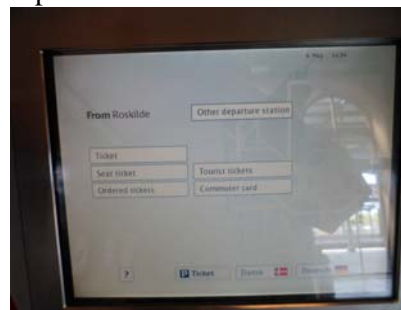

The problem is how to go to and from Roskilde Station. From Roskilde Station there are trains to Copenhagen about every 10 minutes. See below.

If you arrive on Friday you must call a taxi. Phone: +45 46 75 75 75. The price for a taxi to 4 persons to Roskilde Station is about 180 kr. (=24 €). If you want a big taxi (max. 7 persons) you must add about 15 kr. (=2 €) extra, and possible wait a little more.

If you arrive on Saturday between 10 and 15 o'clock there will be some members of Roskilde Flying Club to drive you to the station for free.

If you arrive later, you must call a taxi – see above.

At Roskilde Station you must buy a 24 hour Tourist Ticket, either in the red Ticket-machine in hall, or in the 7-eleven shop, where you also can buy something to drink or eat. If you have more time, there are several small restaurants just outside the station. Both the ticket-machine and the 7-eleven shop accept most common international credit cards, e.g. Visa, MasterCard and American Express.

The 24 hour ticket will cover all your transport needs on trains, busses, water-busses and metros for the next 24 hours in the all Copenhagen Area – including Roskilde. The price is 130 kr. (= 17€), but you have to buy a new 24 hour ticket the next day. Don't buy a 72-hour ticket, it is only for Copenhagen City, and doesn't cover transport from or to Roskilde!

Returning to Roskilde Airport on Sunday be sure that the train stops in Roskilde. Then you have two options from Roskilde Station:

1: Walk 100 meters to the bus-terminal, get on bus 212 direction Hastrup (use your 24 hour ticket), leave the bus at Lufthavnsvej, and walk 1,7 km to the airport. The bus depart just once every second hour. Dep. 9:50 - 11:50 - 13:50 - 15:50 from Roskilde.

2. Take a taxi, they are parked just outside the Station.

Flight-planning.

If you don't make your flightplanning at your hotel, there are selfservice facilities (just one pc) in the terminal building. If you have problems, ask the man at the airport office.

I hope you will have a nice stay in Copenhagen and a good flight back.
See you some day, somewhere, maybe in Roskilde.

Best regards.
